NORWICH, CONN., MONDAY, APRIL 14, 1913 The Bulletin's Circulation In Norwich is Double That of Any Other Paper, and Its Total Circulation is the Largest in Connecticut in Proportion to the City's Population

ATTEMPTED TO KILL SPANISH KING

Anarchist Seized Horse's Bridle and Shot at Alfonso---Bullet Strikes Horse's Neck

MONARCH SAVED HIMSELF BY HIS QUICK WIT

Divining Assassin's Intention, He Dug Spurs Into Horse Causing Animal to Rear, and Thereby Escaped-Anarchist Overpowered After a Struggle and Crowds Attempt to Lynch Him-Third Attempt to Kill Alfonso.

The crowds made a determined attempt to lynch Allegro, who was hur-riedly taken into a house and kept and the dowager queen, Maria Chris-tins, at the palace who were greatly alarmed. The king smilingly allayed their fears.

He had hardly been back ten mi ites when an immense clamor aros The two squares on which the palac looks were black with people of a classes, desirous of showing their jo

It is said that during the course of his first examination Allegro declared

A woman said to be associated with Allegro was placed under arrest to-Spanish Premier was Mistaken of 5,000 Richmond Roses.

ARRANGEMENTS COMPLETE

FOR J. P. MORGAN'S FUNERAL.

ments for the funeral services for J. Pierpont Morgan, which will be held at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning at St.

George's Protestant Episcopal church in Stuyvesant Square, were completed today. So that no confusion may re-sult because of the throngs expected bers of the family being admitted. They will be conducted by Bishop

Brewster, assisted by Bishop Lawrence and the Rev. Karl Relland. In Hart-ford the procession will proceed through Asylum street to Main street where it will pass the birthplace of Mr.

Health in California.

from an operation performed some

IS EXPECTED TODAY

the funeral party.

there until an auto-ambulance corted by mounted police transferred him to a police headquarters. King Alfonso was first to tell of Madrid, April 13—For the third time the monarch that he was mistaken for in his reign, King Alfonso narrowly escaped today being the victim of an anarchist attempt against his life. Three shots were fired at the king this afternoon in the streets of the capiafternoon in the streets of the capi-tal by Rafael Sanchez Allegro, a na-tive of Earcelona, who was immedi-way connected with him. Crowds Attempted to Lynch Assassin tely overpowered. King Alfonso owed his life to his own courage, quick wittedness and skilled horsemanship. Accompanied by his staff he was riding along the Calle de Alcala on the way back from the ceremony of swearing in the rewhen a man sprang from the when a man sprang from the lik and seized the bridle of the horse with one hand, pregar a revolver point blank with which caused delay to Queen Mario Chris-

Bullet Lodged in Horse's Neck. The king took in the situation at a glance. With lightning rapidity he dug his spurs into his horse, which reared violently. His quickness saved his life. The bullet, instead of burying itself in the king's breast, struck was blackened by the powder dis- at the king's safety and their admira was blackened by the powder discharge.

Before the assailant was able to pull the trigger again a secret service man sprang upon him. The two men fell to the ground locked in each other's arms, struggling furiously. The assassin managed to free his revolver arm and fired two more shots in rapid succession, but the officer knocked his arm aside and the bull-trigger again a secret service man to the balcony and acknowledged their cheers and then sought the queen and the two stood bowing to the throngs for several minutes. The police investigations have established that Allegro was recently expelled from France as an anarchist, after which he went to Barrknocked his arm aside and the bull-trigger. sams, struggling furiously. The assassin managed to free his revolver arm and fired two more shots in rapid succession, but the officer knocked his arm aside and the bullets flew harmlessly through the air.

Assassin Puts Up a Battle.

the sound of the first shot the king's staff forced their horses on the sidewalk and made a ring around the assassin, who fought long and fierce-y in the grip of four policemen beore he was overpowered and hand-uffed.

King Alfonso, as soon as he saw having a revolver in his pocket drew king Alfonso, as soon as he saw having a revolver in his pocket drew that the man had been secured raised it out. Driven on by an irresistible himself in the stirrups, turned to the crowd, gave a military salute and shouted in ringing voice:

"Long live Spain!"

He then dismounted and reassured

Spanish Premier was Mistaken.

his staff, saying:
"It is nothing, gentlemen."

King Cheered by the Masses. Then up rose a mighty roar from the wildy enthusiastic masses, which folled along in great waves of sound, all the way as the king rode to the palace cool collected and emiliar of an attempt against the king to the cool collected and emiliar of an attempt against the king to the cool collected and emiliar of an attempt against the king to the cool collected and emiliar of an attempt against the king to the cool collected and emiliar of an attempt against the king to the cool collected and emiliar of the palace, cool, collected and smiling.

A spectator, a pensioner Colay Halberdier, pushed forward so impetupresence in Madrid of several dangerously to offer his congratulations to ous anarchists.

TAFT PAYS A GLOWING

TRIBUTE TO MAJOR BUTT. Read at a Titanic Memorial Service at | Coffin to Be Surrounded With Blanke

New Haven, Conn., April 13—An in-teresting feature of a Titanic memo-rial service held tonight at the Calvary Baptist church was the reading by the pastor, Rev. John Wellington Hoag, of an appreciation of Major Archibald Butt, written by former President William H. Taft.

thing of the nobility of his (Major Butt's) character, which was single, simple and straightforward. He was simple and straightforward. He was incapable of intrigue. He had a clear sense of honor and it lightened his life and the lives of those about him. He was singleminded and loyal and never had any doubt about what he ought to say. Life was not for him a troubled problem. He was a soldier. I very much doubt whether I have ever known a man who had so much self abnegation, as much self-sacrifice abnegation, as much self-sacrifice as much ability to put himself in the place of another and suffer and en-with that other as Archie Butt was senior warden.

In the ibrary of the Morgan home in East Thirty-sixth street the body of ing down of the Titanic frequentdevelop unforeseen and unexpected tits in men and make them heroes, if with Archie, what he did was thing but conformity to a rule of his the was on the deck of the Titanic the dead financier rests tonight in a coffin wreathed in thousandr of red roses, his favorite flower, while a white blanket of 5,000 Richmond roses has been made ready to surround the coffin when it is taken to St. George's church tomography. ng down of the Titanic frequently develop unforeseen and unexpected traits in men and make them heroes, but with Archie, what he did was

The was on the deck of the Titanic charcily what he was everywhere else to die, he would have selected a time to die, he would have taken the one that God gave him. He would have taken it because he would have felt that there, before the world, he was exemplifying the ideal of self-sacrifice. He left with us the sweet flavor of his unselfish life and while we mean the control of the Grand Central station, there to be the left with us the sweet havor of his unselfish life, and while we mourn for him, we felicitate him on the way he went. His heroism will stand as an example for future generations."

the Grand Central station, there to be placed on board a special train for Hartford, Conn., where the burial will be in the Morgan vault. At Hartford the services will be private only mem-of His Vaccine Yet.

Washington, April 13.—Surgeon General Blue, of the public health ser-vice, today told Dr. Friedrich Franz Friedmann, that until the exact na-ture of his tuberculosis vaccine and the method of its preparation had been revealed and the claims made for it substantiated by official tests and in vestigation, a license for its sale in erstate commerce could not be is-ed. This was the surgeon general's answer when the Berlin scientist asked what steps it would be necessary for him to take to obtain such a licen

RIDDLED WITH BULLETS. MURDERER STILL LIVES

New Haven, Conn., April 13.—President Arthur T. Hadley of Yale university is expected back tomorrow to resume his official duties. He has been absent for several weeks in Cal-Wife Slayer Holds Armed Posse at Bay his health,

The duties of the director of the Sheffield Scientific school have been taken over by Professor L, V. Pirsson pending the recovery of Director Russel A, Chittenden, who is slowly recovering at the New Haven hospital from an operation performed.

Chattaneoga, Tenn, April 13.—Fertified in his home, where lay the body of his wifefi whom he is alleged to have killed, Charles W. Goodlake, a tinner, of Cottonport, Tenns, near here today held a sheriff's pesse at hay fer four hours and was captured only after being riddled with builets, according to a telephone message received here tenight, Lats tonight he was still alive. Goodlake is slieged also to have fired on his sea, but the

Cabled Paragraphs

Financial Bill Gets First Reading. Berlin, April 13.—The German imperial parliament yesterday passed the first reading of the financial bill providing for the increased expenditure on the army. The measure calls for the expenditure of over $250,000,-000

Mrs. Pankhurst Released. London, April 13.—Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the suffragette leader, was relaesed from Holloway jail yesterday morning after having been on a "hunger strike" since she was sentenced, only nine days ago, to three years of penal servitude.

Cuban Mayor Assassinated. Havana, April 13.-Ceferino Mendex the recently elected conserva-tive mayor of the city of Cienfuegos, was assassinated Friday night. A group of men waylaid him in the street while he was on his way home and riddled him with bullets.

Cold Spell in Germany. Berlin, April 12.—The cold spell continues throughout Germany and the damage to fruits and other products, which were three weeks in advance March, is approaching the dimension of a catastrophe. of their normal growth owing to the imprecedentedly warm month of

D. A. R. BITTERNESS

ALREADY MANIFEST.

Arouse Mrs. Scott's Ire. Washington, April 13.—Factional bit-terness in the Daughters of the Amer-ican Revolution was intensified on the the society by the sending of a letter from the executive committee of the conservtive party, headed by Mrs. conservtive party, headed by Mrs. Willnam C. Story, a candidate for the president-generalship to Mrs. Matthew T. Scott, retiring head of the society, urging that steps be taken to insure an ion fair to all candidates and a k denunciation of this action by Mrs. Scott. In a statement issued tonight Mrs "I was amazed and shocked beyond words when I was confronted today by two attorneys sent by Mrs. Story to demand that I observe the most elementary rules of common honesty and fairness in conducting the forthcoming

She added that the implication of this demand was "gratuitously offen-sive and insuiting," and that she did not feel it was incumbent upon her to enter into a detailed discussion of the celona. He came to Madrid a month ago and obtained employment in a carpenter shop. He worked there until Friday, on which day he was paid

Interest was intense tonight in the three-cornered race for the office of president-general of the society. Dele gates gathered from all parts of the country were discussing the latest development in the already bitter campaign—the letter sent today by the executive committee to Mrs. Scott.

This letter declared that the memwoman said to be associated with bership of the society was restive under arrest toht.

Spanish Premier was Mistaken.

Curlous coincidence is found in vantage, and urged that steps be takthe fact that the Spanish premier.
Count Romanones, last night declared en to insure fair treatment to each candidate for president-general. Forces of the opposing candidates headquarters. Mrs. Horton and Mrs. Story are making the most active campaigns, but the suporters of Mrs. Charles B. Bryan of Memphis are doing a god deal of quiet electioneering.
Rumors have been current that Mrs.
Bryan intended to withdraw and use her influence with her delegates to bring about the election of one of the candidates. She today set this st with the declaration that she was in the fight to the bitter end."

SEVEN KILLED ON BRANCH OF THE CENTRAL VERMONT

Coaches Telescoped.

to gather in the neighborhood of the church at the funeral bour, routes by which carriages and automobiles conveying those entitled to attend shall approach the edifice have been mapped out, while one side of the square will be clearly be the sale of the square will are dead and fifteen were injured as the result of the derailment of an ex-cursion train this afternoon on the tral Vermont railway, about four and a half miles out of St. Lambert. The train was carrying about 700 out, while one side of the square will be closed by the police to vehicles and kept open for those who go to the church on foot.

The services will be conducted by the Rt. Rev. David H. Greer, bishop of the diocese of New York, who will be assisted by the Rt. Rev. William Lawrence, D. D., of the diocese of Boston; the Rt. Rev. Chauncey B. Brewster of the diocese of Connecticut, and the Rev. Karl Relland, rector of St. George's church, of which Mr. Morgan was senior warden. passengers who had taken advantage of the free trip given by Cottrell, Limiter, real estate agents, to prospective purchasers of lots at Albani sub-division, and was returning to Montreal at a speed of between 20 and 30 miles an hour, when from an as yet unknown cause the engine and the three first coaches left the rails near East Greenfield station. The telescoping of the ends of the derailed cars caused most of the fa-talities, nearly all of which occurred on the first two of the derailed cars. Escaping steam from the boiler of the locomotive which was thrown over on its side, filled the coaches and hampered the passengers in escaping.

The passengers from the other cars formed a rescue brigade and worked hard to extricate the dead and injured from the wreckage. Their efforts were fruitless in the case of some of the victims whose bodies were so firmly wedged in the shattered remains of the coaches that it took a wrecking crew hours to release them.

Following the services at St. George's tomerrow, the body will be taken to the Grand Central station, there to be The dead are:
J. Moses, fireman, Montreal.
J. Laceste, Montreal.
Margaret Deer, ten years old, Point St. Charles.

Unidentified man, supposed to be Christie, Canadian Pacific railroad engineer, The Glen, Que.

Unidentified man, supposed to be med Rochen, Martin White, Montreal South. Unidentified man. As the train was crowded many per-sons were standing on the platforms and many of these were killed or in-

Morgan. Only these floral tributes and m from members of the family and the jured. The accident is supposed to have been caused by spreading rails. more intimate friends of the late banker will be taken to Hartford by

New York, April 13.—Arrived, steamers Caledonia, Glasgow; George Washington, Bremen; Rotterdam, from Dover, April 13—Arrived: Steamer Lapland, New York. Liverpool, April 13—Arrived: Steam-er Bohemian, Boston.

Greeks Hold Memorial Service. New Haven, Conn., April 13.—More than 200 Greeks from this city, Meriden, Waterbury and other places gathered at Newman's hall in Chapel street today for a memorial service to the late King George of Greece. Mass wa celebrated by Rey, P. G. Caloyaniss of Stamford, in accordance to the ritual of the Greek orthodox

President Wilson Saturday told Miss Mabel Beardman he would accept the presidency of the American National Red Cross te succeed former President

Talt.

San Domingo, April 13.—Jose Borda, Valdez was elected by congress today to the office of provisional president of the republic, in succession to Archbishop Neuel, who resigned recently because of ill health.

Surrendered to U. S. Troops

MEXICAN FEDERALS CROSS THE GOVERNMENT LOSES ALASKAN

UNDER A FIERCE FIRE JURY EVENLY DIVIDED

Garrison at Naco, Sonora, Would Not Surrender to Rebels - Abandoned Barracks When Ammunition Failed.

Naco, Ariz, April 13.—General Ojeda, commanding the remnants of his federal garrison of 300 troopers at Naco, Sonora, surrendered to the United States troops on border patrol here today after having withstood a slege of state troops which lasted for five days and in which more than half his troopers were killed. The surrender was hastened by the attack on the federal garrison by the band of Yaqui Indians under General Alvaro Obregon, commanding the state troops, who at daybreak burst in upon the little at daybreak burst in upon the little garrison across the border and fought victously. The dead on both sides has been estimated at 200.

Attempted to March Across Border. General Ojeda, true to his promise, refused to surrender to the state forces and, while the fighting was at its height this morning, he attempted to march across the border with his band of faithful federals. The fire from the enemy was demoralizing and Ojeda and his men scattered, running to the railway tracks which separate the two

Not even then did the firing from cease, and General Ojeda to the American soldiers watching the fighting from a distance Fifteen Remained Behind. Captain H. A. Sevarts, Company A, Ninth United States cavalry, ran at once to his assistance. The American once to his assistance. The American officer grasped the Mexican general by the arm. Together they ran through the hall of lead to where an automothe hail of lead to where an automobile was waiting.

Captain Figueroa of the federal garrison, with fifteen men, remained behind to cover General Ojeda's flight. One by one he and his fellows died in the barracks, surrounded by a horde of yelling, slaughtering Yaquis. When the Indians burst in the windows and doors and crawled through shell-made apertures in the building, there were no living federals to greet them.

Little Left for Rebels. General Obregon entered the barracks from which the handful of federal soldiers had wrought so much have within his overwhelming force and picked up the sword which had fallen from Captain Figueroa's hand. Such was the only formality of surrender to the state forces.

General Ojeda, before leaving the Sonora town, spiked his cannon and burned all supplies. Little was left for the victorious rebels. Personally leading his small group of men, he went from building to building, wrecking and destroying everything which ing and destroying everything which might have been useful to the rebels. Not until his ammunition had become exhausted, however, did the federal Sixty-five Wounded.

Sixty-five wounded from both sides were hurried to this town and placed in the army hospital. The dead remained piled in the streets and lying in the buildings as they fell.

Forty-five wounded Indians picked up in the streets of the Mexican town told what the Yaquis had accomplished. Prevented from participating in the night attack which had been ordered against the federals by General Obregon, because of their superstition of fighting in darkness, the Indians at daylight wildly hurled themselves against the federal fortifications, forcing the fighting, and winning the battle which ended the five days' siege.

"Henor in This Defeat."

"Honor in This Defeat." "There is honor in this defeat," said General Ojeda, after he had safely reached the American side. "I have only one regret, and that is for Captain Figueroa, who refused to surren-der with me."

When told of the captain's death, Ojeda wept bitterly.

SOPHOMORES PROTEST

AGAINST SENIOR SYSTEM. Yale Students Hold Meeting and Draw Up Recommendations.

New Haven, Conn., April 13.—One hundred and fifty members of the Yale sophomore class (academic) met tonight in the Hotel Taft and perfected their formal protest against the present senior society system at Yale. Resolutions were adopted reviewing in considerable detail the alleged evils growing out of the system and recommending changes that would be for mending changes that would be for "the betterment of the college." The recommendations would de away with the "excessive secrecy" now practiced by the societies, would provide for members being selected on a more equal basis, and would abolish the "tap day" ceremony.

It was voted to have the resolutions printed in pamphlet form and distributed to all members of the sophomete The men who were present were representative leaders in the class. Many of the men would probably log-ically become members of the societies. The members aver that if the "evils" not corrected they will refuse

CONNECTICUT COMPANY DISCHARGES 14 EMPLOYES. New Haven Trolleymen Are Nov Threatening Strike.

New Haven, Conn., April 13.—There is considerable unrest among members of the New Haven trolleymen's union over the discharge of fourteen men at the Grand avenue car barns on men at the Grand avenue car barns on Saturday, and the men are threatening to strike unless the men are reinstated. According to officials of the Connecticut company, the men were laid off to curtail expenses; but the trolleymen point out that one of the men had been in the employ of the company for more than thirty years, and it is not the policy to lay off old employes. The trolleymen allege that the men were discharged because they had recently joined the union. This is denied by the company. had recently joined the union. This is denied by the company.

Mr. Riordan of Worcester, an official of the National Trolleymen's union, is here investigating, and he has arrang-ed for a meeting tomorrow with Gen-eral Manager John K. Punderford to talk over the cityatian

All Acquitted Of Conspiracy

COAL LAND CASES.

Extraordinary Victory for Defense," Declares Judge Landis, Who Presided

Chicago, April 13.—Albert C. Frost, former president and promoter of the Alaska Central railroad, and his four co-defendants, all interested in the development of the road, were found not guilty in the federal court here today of consultant to obtain control oday of conspiracy to obtain control legally of millions of dollars' worth of coal lands in the Matanuska val-

The Alleged Conspiracy. Disputes over the methods of coa Disputes over the methods of coal claim locators caused the coal lands to be withdrawn from entry during President Roosevelt's last administration. Frost and his associates were indicted March 16, 1911, in the United States district court here charged with conspiracy to obtain control of sixty-four coal locations by means of "dummy entrymen." The government asserted that the rallroad promoters caused stenographers and other emcaused stenographers and other emused stenographers and other employes to apply for coal lands with the purpose of turning the entire group over to Frost.

Railroad Still Blocked. The verdict, while a vindication of the bussiness methods of the defend-ants, does not open the way for the completion of the railroad, as the coal lands still are withdrawn from entry and will remain so until released by the department of the interior. Mr. Frost said after the acquittal that construction of the road depended on the opening of the coal lands and that it was at a standstill while the coun-try was closed to locators.

Six to Six on First Ballot. At no time was the jury more than venly divided against the defendants. The first ballot stood 6 to 6. The jury deliberated about three hours last night after taking the case at eight o'clock. The verdict was given at two this Judge Kenesaw W. Landis on hear-ing of the verdict demanded that a copy of it be handed him. The court was silent while he examined the pa-

Court's Significant Comment. "Counsel for the defense are to be congratulated on having achieved a most extraordinary victory," he said arter studying the signatures of the jurymen.

Later when asked to amplify his statement Judge Landis replied:

"I refuse to add anything to that. I will say nothing more concerning this verdict." The Acquitted Officials.

The men acquitted today were Albert C. Frost of Chicago, former president of the Alaska Central railway.

George M. Seward and Pierre G. Beach, both of Chicago, and re-G. Beach, both of Chicago, and respectively former vice president and secretary of the Alaska Central.

George C. Ball of Muncie, Ind., financial backer of most of the Frost coal locators and Frank Watson of Spokane, Washn., who located most of the Matanuska claims under power

ONE OF GREATEST STRIKES IN HISTORY OF THE WORLD. Every Branch of Industry in Belgium Expected to be Hit Today.

Brussels, April 13—Belgium tomor-row will be the scene of one of the greatest general strikes the world ever freatest general strikes the world ever has witnessed. It is expected to af-fect every branch of industry within the kingdom. At least 200,000 men-possibly 500,000—will cease work. Unlike most strikes this movement is not for an increase in wages or a betterment of working conditions; is in protest against the refusal of the government to grant the workers he was committing burgiary.

manhood suffrage.

Coal miners, railroad men, glass workers foundrymen electricians and dockmen have pledged themselves to obey the summons of the socialist leaders to make the walkout an effective one.

fective one.

If the commands of the organizers of the agitation are needed the men will refrain from acts of violence. Indeed, the workers have promised that men will be furnished to pump the mines, keep the blast frances going and otherwise protect the property of the masters so that when the strike is called an immediate resumption. fective one. ended an immediate resumption of work can be begun. The government, however, is taking no chances and as a precaution against possible disorders has stationed troops at strategic points for use in case of need.

Thousands of women and children have been sent out of the country by the workmen so that they may not suffer as a result of the strike. The strike leaders say they have $3,000,-

UNRULY MOBS STILL HARASS SUFFRAGETTES. Crowds Howl Down Speakers and Hurl Missiles at Them.

London, April 13.—The weekly attempt of the suffragettes to hold a meeting in Hyde park against the opposition of the anti-suffragettes took place today. The crowd howled down the speakers and hurled missiles at them until the police were forced to intervene and escort the suffragettes intervene and escort the suffragettes from the park.

Wild scenes of disorder occurred at Wimbledon common, where an enormous force of police was engaged in protecting from violence the suffragettes holding an open air meeting. The mob was riotous beyond expression.

Steamers Reported by Wireless. New York, April 13—Steamer Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, Bremen for New York, signalled 110 miles east of Sandy Hook at noon. Dock Tuesday evening or 3 a. m. Wednesday.

Cape Race, N. F., April 13—Steamer Majestic, Southampton for New York, signalled 1,371 miles east of Sandy Hook at 10.40 a. m. Dock 5 p. m. Wednesday.

Child's Spine Broken by Fall. East Windson, Conn., April 13 Howard G, McLean, aged 10, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis D. McLean of Hartford, who has been visiting here.
fell down stairs late this afternoon, and broke his spine, death resulting a

Condensed Telegrams

The Joplin (Mo.) Morning Tribun Robert L. Barber, Postmaster amden, N. J., is dead, aged 64. Senator Kern Has Introduced a res

Alfredo Jannetta, a Well Known Italian musician and composer, died at Los Angeles. He was 76 years of Alfred G. Vanderbilt Paid Off all of the debts contracted by the Newport, R. I. branch of the Young Men's Christian association.

The Arlington Paper Mills at Salisbury Mills, near Newburgh, N. Y., were damaged to the extent of $100,000 by fire Saturday. William Battershill, the Oldest man in Green Bay, Wis., and who plioted the first steamboat into that port, died Saturday aged 100 years. Seven Million Parcel Post packages were handled in the Chicago post of-fice during March, the greatest num-ber for any city in the country.

Secretary of State Bryan has let it be known that he is friendly to the merit system of appointment, promo-tion and tenure in the consular ser-

The Residents of Kaukauna, located on an island in the Fox river, have been warned to flee because of the condition of the Nenah and Kaukauna

President Wilson Has Received a mud turtle from Maryland by parcel post. The crustacean was turned loose in the grass in the rear of the White

Contributions Amounting to $50,000 received Saturday by the American Red Cross brought the total fund for the relief of the flood sufferers up to

The Revenue Cutter Seneca, which is patrolling transatlantic steamship lanes on the lookout for feebergs, re-ported by wireless that no bergs had been sighted 340 miles southeast of Newfoundland.

Governor Moorehead of Nebraska has approved the bill passed by the legislature which probioits the marriage of whites and any person who has one-eighth or more of Japanese, Chinese or negro blood.

Of the Losses to Livestock during the past year that sustained among swine was the heaviest, and hog cholera was probably the cause of 90 percent, of the loss, according to the department of agriculture. War on the Fumes of Tobacco in the senate was begun again Saturday, by Senator Tillman, who infroduced a resolution prohibiting smoking in the chamber or the bringing of a lighted cigar through the senate doors. Dr. Thomas J. Kemp of Washington, convicted of sending improper medical matter through the mails, was sentenced Saturday to two years in the penitentiary by Justice Stafford, the penitentiary by Justice St of the district supreme court. While Attempting to Rescue her nother from their burning home on a farm near Adanac, Sask., Miss Sybil Henderson, principal of the Toronto Public schools, lost her life. Her mother also perished. Autographs of George III, signers of the Declaration of Independence, men prominent in colonial days, historians and warriors, were contained in a volume bought by George D. Smith of New York for $975 at public strips of the property of t cashier of the Crocker National bank at San Francisco, pleaded guilty Sat-urday to embezzlement on 46 counts in amounts not specified in the indictment. Judge Van Fleet deferred sen-tence until Monday. April 21.

Death in the Electric Chair at Co-lumbus Ohio, August 15 next, was the sentence passed upon Frank Kinney. of Chicago, Saturday. Kinney was convicted of the murder of Ralph E. Byrns, a retired lake captain, while Because Her Husband Insisted that she should not burn more than eight matches a day and a box of matches, therefore should last sixty-two days, Mrs. P. E. Cornwell, wife of a Los Angeles clergyman, attempted to ob-tain a divorce. The decree was de-

Reporting the Killing of two sollors and the wounding of three other men from the United States cruiser California at Guaymas, Sonora, by Mexican policemen. American Consul Gilfoyle, at Hermosillo. says the incident was due to the sailors being intoxicated and "very disorderly."

against rats as breeders of disease the United States public health service, through its weekly health reports, Saturday issued an appeal to property owners to "rat-proof" structures now under construction and to transform buildings now erected so that rats and mice may be kept out.

OBITUARY. Charles H. Parsons of New Britain

New Britain, Conn., April 13.— Charles H. Parsons, a well known res-Charles H. Parsons, a well known resident of New Britain, died at his home here this afternoon after a three weeks' illness of pneumonia, aged 66. He was successively a director, second vice president, first vice president and then president of the P. & F. Corbin company. A widow and four sons survive. survive.

John W. Alphonse of Stamford. Stamford, Conn., April 13.—John W. Alphonse, one of the best known business men in the city, died suddenly of heart trouble, aged 80 years. For the last fifty years he had been engaged in the real estate business. He held nerous town offices. A daughter and son survive.

New Haven, Conn., April 14.—Wil-liam H. Collins, who was in the em-ploy of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad for 5 Syears continu Hartford railread for a syears continu-ously, until his rettrement in 1904, died at his home in East Haven shortly after 1 o'clock this morning. He was 87 years old and death was due to a breaking down incidental to old age. For 45 years he was station master at Hartford. Three daughters and two Terrington, Conn., April 13.-Nine of her parents late this afternoon as the result of terrible burns received Saturday while playing about a bon-

CONDITION OF POPE PIUS IS GRAVE

Fear That Tracheal Bronchitis Has Developed into Pneumonia---Temperature Increases

BULLETINS OF PHYSICIANS ARE ENCOURAGING

These Are Censored by the Papal Secretary of State, However -Fever and Cough Were Causing Alarm at Midnight-Pontiff Visited by His Confessor, Who Remains 45 Minutes-Condition of Albuminuria Disappears.

while not absolutely denying this.

Professor Marchiafava said:
"At the present time it could not properly be called pneumonia, but with tracheal bronchitis sometimes the lungs do not function properly. Probably the resistant and robust fibre of the holy father may overcome this danger. Meanwhile we can make the statemeent, which must characterize the property of the celebration of his nanday. statemeent, which must give rise to great hope, that the condition of al-buminuria has disappeared." cause of the pope's illness, the Bulletins Are Consored. In the two bulletins issued one in e morning and one in the evening, that Drs. Marchiafava and Amici em-body in their bulletins all the details Church of St. John Lateran, with reference to the pulse and The crisis in the pope's filness will logical conditions. These bulletins are submitted to Cardinal Merry del Val. and when they reach the public they ularly administering lack what the papal secretary considers unnecessary and undesirable for These have had the

After midnight there was an increase in the temperature of the patient, and the fact that a large quantity of disinfectants had been brought into the sick apartment was considered as an who has been for some the fessor of the pope, entered his room and remained there 45 minutes. It is proceed that during this time he confessed that during this time to con-fessed the poniiff.

Extraordinary measures were taken late at night by the vatican author-ities. The entire vatican gendarmerie was on duty, patrolling both within and outside the apostolic palace. Emitted Blood in Coughing. At the same time the Italian govern Great alarm was occasioned about 11

Those present thought that he was dying and rushed for a doctor and the Cardinal Merry Del Val. The latter on reaching the bedside restored calm, saying that probably the pope would feel great relief, as the presence of the blood was doubtless due to the rupture of small vessels in the throat.

Polish Pilgrims Misinterpret Bells.

There was another alarm yeesterday afternoon. A hundred Polish pilgrims, led by their bishop, were within the basilica, when they heard the sound of many bells. Thinking that this was the announcement of the death of the pope, they gathered around the bishop and intoned prayers for the dead.

Dr. Amici in a statement made last night prior to the extremely serious conditions which arose said "The condition of the pope is grave, but not alarming. We can overcome pathy of all of them and fhey have been borne up only by great faith. One of them said today:

"Our brother is better than yesterday. It is that his Illness afflicts him. The dectors assure us that there is no danger and we live in hope, praying that he may recover."

A peasant from Riese, Giuseppe Pallaro, who came to Roma with the Venetian pilgrimage, and who was confirmed by the pope and bears his name, on coming out of the house of the greatest indignation at the pessimistic reports. His devotion was touching. but not alarming. We can overcome the present crisis. Then if he follows the doctors' advice he may live some rising.

The attendants, although rejuctant to do so, were forced to comply with his request, but he returned to bed within a few minutes, unsteadily. Pillows were piled behind him and he laif sat and half reclined, that position being more favorable for easier respiration.

that Pius X was lying on what high the his deathbed.

Stream of Callers at St. Peter's.

Heavy showers, falling almost constantly, discouraged the faithful and curious alike from keeping watch for signs under the windows of the palace. An unbroken current of visitors reported in and out of St. Peter's all

The Morning Bulletin.

Professor Marchiafava arrived at the vatican chortly after 7 o'clock in the morning and with Dr. Amich made a thorough examination of the patient. This disclosed a congestion in the thorax, more pronounced on the left side than on the right. The physicians issued the following bulletin:

"The pope passed a tranquil night. This morning the fever had diminished to 100 degrees. The symptoms of tracheal bronchitis persisted, more pronounced on the left side. The kidneys are in good condition and the general condition is satisfactory."

Weakness of the Heart.

Weakness of the Heart.

The Morning Bulletin.

Are unbroken current of visitors poured in and out of St. Peter's all day. This is usually the case when the capital is filled with strangers, but only a few today recognized the windows of the pope's chamber, with their closed shutters and stopped to gaze upon them.

Motors from the embassles to the papal court drove up during the afternoon. The occupants made in the visitors book. Many carriages stopped at the entrance, seeking the latest news from the guards.

Many Telegrams of inquiry poured into Weakness of the Heart. The subsidence of the fever caused of the world. relief and the only serious apprehen-sion is to be found in the weakness of the heart. This in a measure has been counterbalanced by a decrease in the albuminuria, indicating that the kidneys were resuming their normal functions. The bulletin was published in a special edition of the Osservatore Romano, which ordinarily does not pub-lish on Sunday, but it was considered desirable to keep the public informed as to the progress the popells making.

to the vatican and the pope, observing to the valican and the pope, observing unmistakable signs of weeping, said in the Venetian dialect, which seemed tenderer than pure Italian:

"Don't cry so much. It is true I am ill, but let us hope in God."

Since he has become weaker, it has been remarked that the pontiff speaks only in Venetian, even with those who are not so familiar with that dialect. The sisters took turns during practically the whole day at the bedside of their brother, who says that he feels he can endure his suffering better when one of them is near.

Rome, April 14.—All indications point to the utmost gravity of the pope's condition. At midnight the fever and cough were giving cause for great alarm. The impression had gained aground that the trachen bronchitis had developed into pneumonia.

Crisis Within 24 Hours. The papal white and yellow flags, owering the pulse but reducing the body heat. The pope has been mourtitles so as to have a continuous ef Disease Merely Following Its Course. After the examination this morning when Professor Marchiafava was giving his instructions for the relief of his patient, Pope Pius suddenly re-

"My Dear Doctor, one thing your my seventy-cight years."

Professor Marchiafava declared in an interview that the condition of the pope should not be called grave, even both within pope should not be say very likely, should palace. return during the evening or night hours. It could not be said that the patient was worse, as the disease was merely following its course, and the pontiff was facing conditions with the "I firmly believe that he will recover." The sisters and niece of the pepe are pathetic in their grief. Their sim-ple devotion has attracted the sym-pathy of all of them and they have the doctors' advice he may live some years more.

"The present relapse was due to the reluciance of the pontiff to submit strictly to the medical regime. The moment he feels better he wishes to resume bis orfdinary occupations, which cause loss of strength and great danger."

Several Attacks of Coughing.

From midnight until 5 o'clock in the morning the pope dozed quietly and appeared to be relieved by the rest. An hour later, however, he began tashow restlessness, had several coughing. On this account he insisted upon rising.

The attendants, although reluctant to the pope is in danger. He was up for five hours yestering and seven hours the day before. His sisters have just told may before this setter have just told may be fore. His sisters have just told may before and it is well."

Someone said: "All Rome knows that the condition of the pontiff is serious," to which the peasant shouted: "It is not true," he cried, "that the condition of five hours yestering and seven hours the day before. His sisters have just told may before. His sisters have just told may before this is well."

Someone said: "All Rome knows that the condition of the pontiff is serious," to which the peasant shouted: "It is not true," he cried, "that the pope is in danger. He was up for five hours yestering and seven hours the day before. His sisters have just told may before this setters have just told may be the law well."

Someone said: "All Rome knows that the condition of the pontiff. We want him to live, even if it is necessary to take him back to Riece."

The great plant he was up for five hours yestering and seven hours the day before. His sisters have just told any before the said yellow period."

Someone said: "All Rome knows that the condition of the pontiff. We want him to live, even if it is not true, you wish to kill our beloved pontiff. We want him to live, even if it is not true. You wish to kill our beloved pontiff. We want him to live, even if it is not true. You wish to kill our beloved pontiff. We want him to live, even curious alike from keeping watch for signs under the windows of the pal-ace. An unbroken current of visitors poured in and out of St. Peter's all Telegrams of inquiry poured into the Vatican today from every quarter of the world. The number was so great that individual answers were impossible. The pope showed the keenest interest in the messages, and told his secretary. Cardinal Merry del Val, to keep them all so that he could read and answer them when his conread and answer them when his condition improved.

The messages included inquiries from Emperor William of Germany and Emperor Francis Joseph of Austria-Hungary and the kings of Spain and Saxony.

All the churches were crowded this morning. Prayers were intened for the suffering pontiff. Many women wept as they prayed and the congregations showed great emotion.

The heavy rain continues tonight, Save for a few lights at the palace windows there are no signs about the Vatican.

Midget Becomes a Mather. Cleveland, April 13.—Through a Caesarian operation, the life of the littlest mother" in Ohlo, Mrs. Rose McDowell, of Beres, was saved at St. Ann's hespital, Mrs. McDowell, who is only forty-six inches in stature is the mother of a saven pound sir. Both trading nicely.